Curated by Lalie Choffel, Contamination pays tribute to thirty years of the radical and unique work of major artist Antoine D'Agata, exhibiting thirty prints in both colour and black & white, and a video installation.

Description

Traversing across continents, French photographer D'Agata has stuck to his mission to capture scenes of reckless abandon, chaos and debauchery with empathy.

Among these artful and poetic images are scenes of urban violence, drug addiction and other nefarious activities taking place in the underworlds of cities across the globe.

The entire exhibit is made up of colour and black and white photography and a video installation, and will also feature a specially created live show entitled Odyssea which will be performed on 8, 9 and 10 May at 8pm.
