

Exhibition 10~24 March

Open to the public Tuesday to Saturday from 1pm to 7pm except public holidays.

Friday 9 March6.00 pm

exhibition opening

7.00 pm

curator talk (in English)

7.30 pm

artist sharing (in English)

Saturday 10 March4.00 pm

sharing by founder of Yangon Photo Festival Christophe Loviny (in English).

5.30 pm

Panel discussion by Christophe Loviny and Minzayar Oo, moderated by Caroline Ha Thuc. Christophe Loviny and Minzayar Oo will share their fieldwork experiences and debate about the current situation in Myanmar (in English).

Wednesday 14 March7.30 pm

Sharing by lecturer Ian Holliday (in English)

8.30 pm

Screening of BurmaVJ an Academy Award-nominated film reporting the Saffron Revolution that took place in Burma in 2008. This report played a fundamental role in the history of Burmese documentary: for the first time, citizen-journalists and photojournalists managed to get over censorship and send to international press agencies images of the demonstration and its violent governmental repression (in Burmese with english subtitles).

Wednesday 21 March8.00 pm

screening of a selection of short films by young Burmese film directors, in collaboration with the independent Wathann Film Festival. We will present films by Thu Thu Shein, Latin Oo and more (films are presented in Burmese with english subtitles).